

What part of your identity do you think
people first notice
about you?

What part of your
identity are you least
comfortable sharing
with other people?

What part of your
identity is the most important to you?

What part of other people's identities do
you notice first?

For what part of your
identity do you feel
you receive privilege
for most often?

For what part of your
identity do you feel
you face oppression
for most often?

For what part of your
identity do you feel
least comfortable with
at Wayne State?

What part of your
identity did you
struggle the most with growing up?